Draft of Dever Now Seen Almost Certain by Party Leaders; Hynes, However, Expected to Decline to Seek Any Office

Democratic leaders are now convinced almost beyond argument that ex-Governor Paul A. Dever will be drafted as a candidate for the Governorship at the Democratic State convention early in June.

At the same time it is pretty generally accepted that Mayor John B. Hynes will remain on the sidelines, will not be a candidate for any State office this year but will concentrate on his own duties of handling Bostons' municipal problems.

It is anticipated that State Treasurer Foster Furcolo will be the Democratic candidate for U. S. Senate and Dever's running mate at the head of the Democratic State ticket—if he can survive a primary fight with ex-Governor James M. Curley and whomever else may enter the con-

That is the way party chieftains now size up the Democratic picture, and they support their reasoning by pointing out that not a single Democrat of any political stature has declared himself a candidate for Governor in the month since Dever announced he would not "seek'

LIFE INSURANCE FOR CHILDREN Jumps 5 times in value at age 21 with no added cost

Have you a child or a grandchild between the ages of 1 and 15? If so, our new JUNIOR ESTATE BUILDER policy - which we've nicknamed the "Jumping Juvenile" - will assure him $5000 of life insurance at age 21 for every $1000 you buy him now!... with no increase in cost and with no further proof of insurability.

You see, this savings-type life insurance automatically jumps to 5 times its original value when the youngster reaches 21, yet the premium does not change throughout the life of the policy.

Here's the ideal way to guarantee your child a substantial amount of life insurance, at low juvenile rates, as he takes on grown-up responsibilities - with important cash values available for earlier education or later emergencies.

The sooner you buy the lower the rate. For details in terms of age you specify, please fill out and return the coupon.

Political Overtones

It also is understood in Democratic circles that Dever gave the green light to Treasurer Furcolo before the latter tossed his hat into the Senatorial ring.

Democratic leaders would be deeply worried over the situation if they weren't certain in their own minds that Dever will be their gubernatorial standardbearer next autumn because any of the lesser known candidates who are willing to make the fight against Governor Chris-tian A. Herter would be under a serious handicap, if they were forced to wait until June before launching their campaigns.

Dever's friends declare that he will not decline to run, if he believes there is a genuine desire on the part of the rank and file members of the Democratic party to have him seek the office which he held for four years. They declare that this was why Dever left the door open to a possible draft and why he declined to commit himself as to what he would do, if the Democratic State convention nominated him. Persons close to Mayor Hynes anticipate that when he returns from his present vacation he not only will announce that he will not be a candidate for any office this year but will stifle any thought of drafting him by stating that he would decline the nomination if it were proferred to him at the State convention.

On the surface it would appear that Democratic affairs in Massachusetts are in a confused and bewildering state, but party leaders insist that is not so and that an orderly pattern will emerge at the State convention in Worcester, if not be-

Exactly why that was done was never explained, although it was later claimed that the tribute to Marshall was omitted on the suggestion of Wisconsin's Governor Walter J. Kohler and other Republican leaders in the State. Since that time Mc-Carthy has repeatedly challenged the administration without ever really being slapped down. It is not at all unusual for him to say that a statement approved by the White House is "completely false."

About the only explanation that can be advanced for President Eisenhower's apparent appeasement of Senator Mc-Carthy is the President's glaring weakness in the Republican wing in Congress and the hostility displayed toward him by many members of his own party.

Newspaper reporters on the Eisenhower campaign train, as it sped into Mc-Carthy's home state of Wisconsin in October, 1952, knew that Ike intended to include in a speech he was to make in Milwaukee a tribute to his old friend, General George C. Marshall, whom McCarthy had March 9th. William J. Baxter bitterly assailed.

Mr. Eisenhower went so far as to read to McCarthy what he intended to the knowledge that their own slate will be headed by two vote-getters in the persons of Messrs. Herter and Saltonstall and that their own convention problems will simmer down to the selection of candidates for State Treasurer, State Auditor | feel that members of the ADA | in a word, to the preservation and Secretary of State.

The fact, however, is that some conservative Republicans on Capitol Hill now abuse President Eisenhower almost as violently as they did Franklin D. Roosevelt 14 or 15 years ago.

They go so far as to assail President Eisenhower as a "traitor" to his pabecause of the policies he has advocated and the persons he has declined to remove from public office.

It may well be that the President, who has never been accused of lacking courage, isn't so much unwilling to face a showdown with McCarthy as he is reluctant to risk a further conflict with the right ring of his own party, in which Mc-Carthy is now an acknowledged leader.

MRS. GEO. J. ELBAUM,

NEED NONANTUM LIBRARY!

(The following letter was sent by the Nonantum Improvement Council to Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., and the Newton Board of Aldermen.) Dear Sirs:

The longstanding need for a new and adequate library building in Nonantum continues to be a matter of widespread community interest.

Dating from this Council's original petition on January 2, 1951, countless moves have been made by the Board of Library Trustees, the Nonantum Improvement Council,, members of the Board of Aldermen, and other interested citizens to bring to fruition this project too long delayed. On January 14, 1954, the Newton Council of Parent-Teacher Associations expressed concern over the poor library facilities in Nonantum and voted unanimously to support our efforts.

Since this letter is directed to a new administration, it is only fair to state that over the years no voice opposed the need for improved library facilities in this area.

On December 17, 1951, the selection of a site for the new Nonantum Library appeared on the aldermanic docket. Your files will show that the Memorial Park site-favored by the Board of Library Trustees, the Newton Public Works Committee and the Nonantum Improvement Council—lost by a single vote. Subsequent proposals were made by the Board of Library Trustees, but no action was taken by city authorities.

We plead now for some assurance that this urgent need in Newton's oldest village will be officially recognized and met as soon as practicable. plead, too, that no second-rate, hand-me-down solution will be the answer, such as converting the old Nonantum fire station to library purposes.

Nonantum, perhaps even more than other villages in Newton, needs the lift of a proper library building in an attractive setting. In close cooperation with the Nonantum Businessmen's Association and other local organizations, we are working to improve our village center We are proud that two Newton banks have recognized the importance of Nonantum village by establishing local offices. Current efforts point to a branch post office, off-street parking, and general improvement of the community as a whole.

May we count on you to do your best for Nonantum? MRS. GERALD M. SWARTZ

NEWTON MAN KILLED. Mendel Levinson, 28, of 41 Travis drive, Chestnut Hill, president and treasurer of Charles & David, Inc., a Boston haberdashery concern, was killed and his wife, Arlene, was seriously injured last Thursday night when his car went out of control and smashed into a rocky ledge on the Wilbur Cross parkway in Connecticut. Their two children, Susan, 8, and Amy, 5, were reported not seriously injured in the crash.

CLERGYMEN SPEAK ON BROTHERHOOD. Three Newton clergymen stated their definitions of "Practical Brotherhood" at the Newton Lions Club's annual Brotherhood Week dinner held at the Newton Y.M.C.A. last week. They were Rev. Louis A. Ford, minister of the Myrtle Baptist Church, West Newton; Dr. Albert I. Gordon, rabbi of Temple Emanuel in Newton Centre. and Rev. Randolph S. Merrill, minister of the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville.

SUIT DROPPED. Archduke Franz Josef of Austria last Thursday dropped his $950,000 suit against his sister-in-law, Princess Ileana, and faces possible prosecution for perjury as a result of telling an acknowledged lie during the trial. Princess Ileana is now a Newton housewife.

OIL PAINTING. An oil painting of former Mayor Edwin O. Childs was presented to the city at an unveiling ceremony in the Newton Library, Newton Corner, Tuesday night at 9 p.m. Painted by Bernard Keyes of Boston, the likeness was hung in the new addition to the library. A group of Newton citizens commissioned Mr. Keyes to paint the portrait and presented it to the city.

RAWSON BACKS BILL. Representative George E. Rawson (R.4th Middlesex District, Newton) in a statement issued this week, supports the bill now before the State Senate to give tenure to the state fire marshall.

HEAR TAX EXPERT. Joseph P. Healy, executive secretary of the special commission on taxation established by the State Legislature in 1948, spoke at a Newton League of Women Voters sponsored open meeting Monday night in the Newtonville Library Hall.

INJURED IN CRASH. Treated at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital last week following an automobile crash were Patrolman Thomas F. Ganley of 1577 Washington street, West Newton, who suffered an injury to his left elbow, and his wife, Margaret, who suffered injuries to her head and right arm. Patrolman Ganley reported that he was proceeding west on Commonwealth avenue when an unidentified car came out of Prince street, forcing his automobile onto the reservation into a utility pole.

NEWTON MAN SAVED. Albert S. Schaller of 11 Maintoba road, Waban, 76-year-old shoe store owner, was rescued from the icy waters of Farm Pond in Sherborn last week after a passerby heard his calls for help and summoned the police and fire departments. Mr. Schaller, president of Thayer-McNeil Shoe Stores of Boston and Wellesley, was fishing through the ice 500 feet from shore when the ice suddenly gave way under him.

NEW CHURCH BEING BUILT. Work is progressing for a new church to serve the Watertown Congregation of Jehovahs Wit-nesses, shortly to be known as the Newton Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, at Washington street and Commonwealth avenue, West Newton.

RECOVERED FROM ILLNESS. Retired Newton City Clerk Frank M. Grant has recovered from his illness which confined him to the Boston City Hospital and was the guest of honor at a testimonial given in his honor, at the Normandie Room, Auburndale, Monday night.

HITS LAW DEPARTMENT'S EXPENSES. Levon Kasarjian, 149 Park street, Newton, a watchmaker, protested the appropriation of $23,000 for the Law Department expenses last week and requested a public hearing by the Aldermanic Finance Committee on expenditures. He also suggested a reduction in the city solicitor's salary, the elimination of the payment of $3,900 for office expense and the appointment of a part time secretary.

Urges 'Career Firefighter' For Post of Fire Marshal

A strong appeal for placing lic Safety. The Ways and under Civil Service tenure provisions so a "career firefighter" may hold down that important job, was made this week by State Rep. George E. Rawson in a statement to the Graphic.

"House Bill 2280, which seems to be definitely in the public interest, passed the House last week after considerable de-bate," Rep. Rawson declared. "It was based on House Bill 360, the petition of the Massachusetts Fire Chiefs Club to place the present Fire Marshal on tenure subject to his passing qualifying examination.

"When Sen. Clampit and I secured the passage of Chapter 710 of the Acts of 1945, which created the Board of Fire Prevention Regulations, an important advance in fire prevention was made which has had beneficial results. The Act made the State Fire Marshal the enforcement office of the regulations promulgated by the board. It was hoped that a career man would be found for the office."

Rep. Rawson pointed out that, first as clerk and now as has worked with six Fire Marshals, "most of whom have been political appointees." He praised Gov. Herter's appointment of Herber Ulm as the latest Fire Marshal, stating that the appointment was made on the recommendation of the Fire Chiefs Club.

Terrier Winner Of National Title

The Francis G. Lloyd Memorial Trophy of the Scottish Terrier Club of America was presented to Champion Lynwood Angus at the Eastern Dog Club Show conducted recently at Mechanics Building.

Angus, owned by William R. Wood of 42 Fairfield street, Newtonville, was voted the trophy at the recent annual meeting in New York of the Scottish Terrier Club of America.

The Trophy, a perpetual ster-ling silver Challenge Cup for the best of either sex, is awarded annually to the dog scoring the greatest number of points based on the championship point rating of the shows. This point rating is in accordance with the prescribed ruling of the American Kennel Club and the Scottish Terrier Club of Angus also won the Edgerstoune Best of Breed Trophy offered to the winner of the most points in the Best of Breed during 1943. Angus, born and reared in Newton, is the winner of 40 Best of Breeds and many times winner of Terrier groups. To further qualify as a champion of worth, five of Angus' their way to Championships.

The dance classes of the late Katharine D. O'Gorman, who died suddenly January 26, are being taken over by the Katharine Dickson Dance Studio. These classes are held at the Newton Centre Women's Club. The work will be under the supervision of Miss Dickson, whose Studio in Harvard square, Cambridge, is well known. Miss Dickson also has classes at the Waban Neighborhood Club. The teaching will be done by Miss Grace McKenna, Miss Dickson's asso-ciate teacher. Miss McKenna has a fine ballet background, and is also well versed in tap and children's work.

Both Miss Dickson and Miss McKenna are members of the Dance Teachers' Club of Bos-ton, and Miss Dickson, who is a past president of the club, is a member of the New York Society of Teachers of Dancing. She is a graduate of the Bouve-Boston School of Physical Education, and of Boston Univer-sity School of Education. Both Miss Dickson and Miss McKenna are leaders in Dance at the Boston Center for Adult Edu-

Meeting March 30 Of Newton Ass'n

The Newton Improvement Association is planning a members' meeting to be held Tuesday, March 30th, at the Hunne-well Club. The program for the evening is being arranged by Harold Wooster, chairman of the Program Committee, and refreshments will be furnished by a ladies committee of which Miss Margaret Margoley is chairman. Prominent city and state representatives will address the meeting and there will be a discussion of planning for Newton Corner.

Sometimes success comes to the man who gets busy and answers his own prayers.

Jr. I girls were welcomed by Robin Foster, head captain of the Blue Team, was master of ceremonies as girls of Jr. II and II demonstrated work on the horse, buck, rings and ropes, under the direction of Miss Alice Willey, director of girls' physical education. The assembly ended with several cheers by the Girls' Cheer lead-ers, led by their captain, Esther warmly applauded. Judith Brown, secretary of the School Community, thanked the P.T.A. in behalf of the school, for the fine assemblies for which they are financially responsible.

"Math can be fun", say 23 girls who belong to a school club which does curve stitching during Wednesday's activity period. The idea was originated by Polly Gimball, a pupil in Mrs. Isabelle Savides' algebra classes. Mrs. Savides acts as faculty sponsor. Last week Warrenites con-tributed a total of $133 to the March of Dimes. Room 302, a combined Jr. II and III home-room, contributed the largest amount, $18.69. This week, responding to a request from the Junior Red Cross for pocket editions of books for the Vet-erans' Hospital in Jamaica Plain, a total of 361 books was collected. Quite by accident, Jr. I homeroom 101 and Jr. II room 302, found themselves compet ing for top honors. Result: Room 101, 72 books; but Room

302 came through the last day with the amazing total of 175. Hills and Falls Com'ity Nursery

School Meeting The second corporation meet ing of the Hills and Falls Com-munity Nursery School was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Currier, 122 Pine Grove avenue, Newton Lower Falls.

Mrs. Luthene G. Kimball, president of the corporation, presided and called for several reports. Mrs. Frederic A. Stanwood reported on her visit to the Red Barn Nursery School, the Wellesley Human Relations Service, was the speaker and moderator of the evening. The subject scheduled for discus sion was "Discipline". Dr. Klein described discipline as something that was expected and accepted in former days and societies. Today parents gather in groups to discuss discipline, ways of using it, and its effects. Dr. Klein read a case study concerning discipline, after which the meeting was adjourned into six small groups for discussion. Reports from each group discussion were made, and Dr. Klein gave a final summary on the case study. Refreshments were served at the close of the meet-

Mr. Prescott died in 1939, at the age of 87, within a year after the Branch Library was dedicated. In his later years a member of the Board of Assessors of Newton, he was intense ly interested in civic projects. Having some time previously published an illustrated pamphlet, "Some Newtonville Homes," wrote, published and sold small booklet, "The Story of Newton," which ran through two editions and told in interesting, illustrated form the history of the City from its begin ning to the present time. He donated the net proceeds, $1500, toward the building fund of the new branch Library that was being sponsored by the Newtonville Improvement Association.

After Mr. Prescott's death, the many thousand booklets remaining were in time sold, the proceeds being put into the R. Prescott Memorial Fund, of which Fred C. Alexander is treasurer and man-ager. From this Fund, over 100 outstanding books have been bought for deposit and use in the Newtonville Branch Li Newton's new legislator-Arthur G. Heaney-will be welcomed with open arms by Republican leaders on Beacon Hill, for he will help bolster the thin G.O.P. majority in the House of Representatives.

If A.D.A. leaders had been able to accomplish the surprise for which they were hoping, the division of polistrength in the lower legislative chamber on Beacon Hill, would have been tightened even further.

However, the Republican voters turned out in sufficiently large numbers to prevent any such upset, and the A.D.A. drive to get out a big Democratic vote did not prove as effective as had been anticipated.

Even though fewer than half of the eligible voters went to the polls, the turnout was reasonably large under the circumstances, and the percentage of the vote cast was substantially greater than could be achieved in a special off-season election in most communities.

the Fifth Middlesex District seat in the state House of Representatives with ease Tuesday, defeating the Democratic nominee, Alvin S. Hochberg, by slightly better than a two-toone margin. The new state representative rolled up substantial margins in Wards 4 and 5, and also took Ward 6, but not in such a convincing manner. Mr. Heaney drew a total of 6105 ballots while Mr. Hochberg received

A total of 9143 votes went to the polls on a sunny but slightly chilly day. The weather was considered a vital factor in the election by Republican strategists, since the main GOP problem was to get out its supporters in traditionally Republican Newton.

The number of voters repre sented 38 per cent of the total registered for the three wards. Apparently 17 citizens visited polls to enjoy the walk, as 17 ballots were not marked for either candidate.

The turnout was much greater than at the primary last month when only 13 per cent, or slightly under 4000, cast their ballots. In the primary, Mr. Heaney had a clean-cut margin over William J. Baxter, who placed second, and William Ell-ingwood. Mr. Hochberg was unopposed for the Democratic nomination but still drew 154

This is the first attempt at gaining public office by the new representative. Mr. Heaney, who is married and the father of two children, is active in local Boy Scout circles and formerly head ed the Oak Hill Park Improvement Association.

Temple Reyim Group Hears Of Mental Ills

The nationally-prominent Neuro-Psychiatrist and father of the "Shock Treatment" in America, Dr. Isadore Green, was the featured speaker at the recent Breakfast Meeting of the Temple Reyim Brotherhood.

To an enrapt audience which gave him its undivided attention, Dr. Green dissolved many false conceptions concerning mental illnesses, most important of which is that mental illness does not necessarily mean insanity. That is purely a legal

Dr. Green stated that mental health is the ability to meet squarely the everyday problems of life and that worry is a very normal reaction. Complete peace of mind is a fallacy; an illusion reserved only for However, happiness and contentment are synony-mous goals that can be achieved by changing one's self to suit life, not fighting vainly and frustratingly to change life which is unchangeable, he declared.

Dr. Green spoke in a down-toearth manner punctuated by anecdotes to illustrate his points. At the close of his address he was presented by Dr. Herbert Shepard, Brotherhood president, with a gift, and a spontaneous rising ovation by

Heaney should make an able legislator. He fills the place left vacant by the resignation of Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., who was one of the hardest working of the Republican members in the House of Representatives.

If he comes even close to the standard set by Whitmore, he will satisfy most of the persons who gave him their votes on Tuesday.

Control of Political Comic Books Vital . . Dever's Political Plans Still Not Clear

The observer cannot agree with those columnists who view a bill now pending before the Massachusetts Legislature to control the use of campaign comic books as an assault upon our civil liberties.

The measure would not prohibit the use of comic books in a campaign, as one editorial alarmist has repeatedly implied, but it would require that the candidate, in whose behalf it was published, assume the responsibility for it.

As matters now stand, vicious and irresponsible literature, smearing, maligning and lampooning a candidate, can be distributed by any obscure organization, while the office-seeker it is intended indirectly to help disclaims any knowledge of the action.

That happened in the last two guber-natorial campaigns in Massachusetts, and, as Representative George E. Rawson of Newton maintains, it is quite possible that a scurrilous comic book hastened the death of the late Arthur W. Coolidge who was the Republican candidate for Governor in 1950.

If an organization desires to issue a comic book in the name of Governor Herter, Lieutenant Governor Whittier, Attorney General Fingold, ex-Governor Dever or State Treasurer Furcolo, it is only proper and logical that it should obtain the consent of the individual candidate it wishes to assist and that he should accept the responsibility for the

That is a protection not only for the person maligned and burlesqued in a comic book but also for the candidate in whose behalf the attack is made.

Politicians sometimes seek to accomplish their objectives by devious and indirect methods. It is not at all impossible that a comic book might be devised which would build sympathy for the candidate attacked and precipitate a flood of resent-ment against the contender it was supposedly designed to help.

An office-seeker quite conceivably might be double-crossed, and he probably would have a difficult time convincing the voters that the organization which put out a campaign comic book was actually trying to injure his cause instead of help-

If recent men are to be encouraged to run for public office in Massachusetts, they should be protected against attacks from irresponsible sources against whom they have no way of retaliating.

The two notable targets of comic book attacks were the late Lieutenant Governor Arthur W. Coolidge and Governor Christian A. Herter. But that method of political attack could be employed against any candidate in either political party, and if the practice were to continue unchecked, it is likely that it would have unfortunate results.

The enactment of the bill now before the Legislature should be a sound and healthy step.

Persons close to former Governor Dever appear to be in disagreement as to whether he would or would not yield to a draft in the event that he is nominated at the Democratic State convention early next June.

Some of Mr. Dever's intimates insist that he will not run for any office this year and will turn down a draft. Others declare that he will accept a nomination, if he is convinced that the rank and file of Democratic voters want him to undertake a comeback. Meanwhile, the one person who holds the answer, Mr. Dever himself, is remaining silent and not giving it.

The one thing that can be pointed out is that the former Governor has never stated that he would decline a nomination, if he were drafted, and he has made no step to halt the draft movement which is underway in var-determine exactly what other candidates are invited to check and list the tonville Library. are available to run before he makes his dates and hours of meetings, 10:00—Social S final decision. There are two reasons why

1. It is pretty generally known that Dever has attempted to persuade Boston's Mayor John B. Hynes to run for the Governorship.

2. Friends of State Treasurer Foster Furcolo declare that Furcolo obtained mandie Room. the green light from Dever before announcing his candidacy for the U. S. Senate and received assurances that Dever would not seek a Senate post.

ver would not seek a Senate post.

With the exception of Senator John Church Parish House. F. Kennedy, whose term still has more than four years to run, and Mayor Hynes, who is not disposed to seek State office this year, Dever unquestionably is the strongest candidate the Democratic party Trinity Church, Newton Centre. in Massachusetts could offer to the voters next autumn.

It could well be that Dever is per sonally reluctant to return to the political wars but that he would do so, if he felt his party would have a weak State ticket without him and needed him to bolster it. That may be the answer to a confusing Democratic picture that is puzzling many persons.

Politicians are watching with great interest to determine whether Senator Mc-Carthy wins his fight for free radio and television time so that he may personally answer the speech made in Miami last Saturday by Adlai Stevenson.

It was not surprising that Republican National Committee Chairman Leonard W. Hall passed over McCarthy and designated Vice-President Nixon to answer Stevenson on time officially allotted to the G.O.P. because when McCarthy was given time to answer former President Truman a few months ago, he took occasion in his speech to sideswipe President Eisenhower.

If the television and radio networks yield to McCarthy and grant him time to answer Stevenson, in addition to the time allocated Nixon, it is conceivable that Stevenson, having been subjected to two counter-attacks, could demand time to reply to McCarthy. The guessing in political circles is that this is one controversy McCarthy will not win and that the networks will not sponsor two Republican replies to Stevenson. There are those, however, who have watched McCarthy win a number of Club. rough-and-tumble fights, and aren't so sure he'll lose out.

Republican members of Congress would like to see Hawaii admitted to Statehood, and Democrats want Alaska made a State. The explanation for the attitude of the rival political parties on the matter is the obvious one. Alaska would be Democratic and Hawaii Republican.

A great deal of behind-the-scene maneuvering has been going on in Congress by each political wing. The Democrats are willing to vote Statehood to Hawaii and Alaska at the same time, tieing them together into one bill. The Republicans are seeking to keep them in sep-

Democratic leaders suspect, probably with some justification, that if separate measures are enacted, the Alaska bill will either be pigeon-holed in the House, M. C. A. which already has passed a Hawaii bill, 7:30—8 or vetoed by President Eisenhower.

If the Democrats stand together in the Senate, they have the strength to insist on a package deal combining Alaska and Osborne path, Oak Hill. There is some que whether they can muster a united front, the Newtons - Peirce School. and the vote on the issue is likely to be very close.

When an inch of snow fell in Mobile, Ala., last week, the citizens formed long lines to buy cameras and film in order to record the scene. It was the heaviest snowfall in a century.

"Water witching" is now being relied upon extensively to find underground water in Illinois farming areas. "Water witching" is the method in which the "witcher" uses the forked branch of a tree to locate an underground water stream. One farm-owner reportedly has located several wells for himself and neighbors by employing that system.

Gracie Allen came up with one of the telavision laughs of the week recently whn she tried to convince her hubby, George Burns, that he should take an income tax deduction for the cigars he smokes during the year. Gracie claims they're destroyed by fire and the fire insurance companies won't nay the claim. If you've been a follower of "One Man's Family" on radio you have surprises in store in the television version. 16-year-old Anne Whitfield has been heard in the role of Claudia for the past nine years. TAXI METERS OPPOSED. Holders of taxi licenses in Newton presented an almost solid front in opposition to an ordinance change which would require meters in all cabs. Also opposed was a move to open a stand to all taxis in each section of the city. The objections were made at a public hearing at City Hall.

MILD EPIDEMIC. A slight epidemic of scarlet fever cases broke out in Newton during February, according to the monthly communicable diseases report issued by the Public Health Department. Twenty-two cases were reported during the month, but most were described as "mild."

FUNERAL OF MARINE. More than 400 attended funeral services Friday for Pfc. Jerome W. Oteri Jr., Auburndale Marine who was killed February 27 by the accidental discharge of a gun aboard the aircraft carrier Coral Sea. Services were at Corpus Christi Church, Auburndale.

LITTLE TAX RISE SEEN. If there is an increase in Newton's tax rate over the present $44, it should be very slight, Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr. said Saturday. However, he pointed out that no definite prediction can be made at this time.

DR. MORRIS DIES. Dr. Ernest M. Morris, 66, director of Public Health for Newton, died Saturday at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital despite an emergency operation for a burst abdomen blood vessel. Funeral services were held Tuesday.

HONOR NEW PASTOR. Nearly 700 parishioners gathered Our Lady's Church, Newton, on Sunday night to pay tribute to their new pastor, Rt. Rev. Walter J. Furlong.

BEATEN IN TOURNAMENT. The Newton High School hockey team dropped its final two contests in the state school-boy hockey tournament by identical 2-1 scores to Walpole and Belmont. The Tigers rated fourth place statewise after their surprising showing.

POLICE VOTING. Voting is taking place today (Thursday) for officers and directors of the Newton Police Memorial Association. Unopposed for re-election as officers are Officer John A. Zilinskis, president; Lt. James W. Corcoran, secretary; and Officer John J. Geegan, treasurer.

SEEK FOOD VENDOR CURBS. The Newton Druggists Association voted to ask the city to license all motorized food vendors operating within the city as a sanitary measure.

SECOND TV TOWER. A second request for permission to construct a television transmitting tower in Newton has been filed by Station WHDH, which is seeking Channel 5, at the rear of 1173 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls. The aldermen previously voted approval to a $907,000 tower in the industrial development area for CBS, which also has applied for Channel 5.

$125,000 FUND DRIVE. Trinity Church, Newton Centre, will launch a $125,000 campaign Monday to raise funds for a new parish hall. The campaign will continue through April 4.

TEACHERS MEETING. More than 500 members and guests witnessed the production of "Ham and Eggs," a musical revue spoofing schools and teaching presented by the Newton Teachers Federation as part of its annual meeting at Newton High School.

Choir at 7:30 p.m. Next Thurs- | Co-Author of Musical day, there will be a Lenten program for primary and junior boys and girls of the Grace and Eliot Churches at 2:30 p.m. The third in the Community Lenten Services will be at 8 p.m. at the Newton Methodist Church with Rev. 19th Century Costumes at Jackson Home

Two lovely wedding gowns, mellowed to a warm cream with the years, are featured in the special showing of 19th century fashion opening this coming Sunday at the Jackson Home-stead, 527 Washington street,

Shown on forms at either side of the old parlor fireplace, the dresses attract immediate attention. To the left is the gown worn by Hannah Jackson when she married Henry W. Fuller in 1840 in that very room. Some of her curls rest on her shoulders, and on the dress is a mosaic pin which she is shown wearing in a later picture which stands nearby, Also to be seen are her silk mitts, fan and embroidered

Of great elegance is the gown to the right which was the bridal apparel of Sarah J. Harvey who married Frank Dorr on November 7, 1883. The ivory faille is trimmed with bands of pink damask and lace, Her slippers, hose, gloves and handkerchiefs are also on display as well as her husband's doe-

Several gowns of silk, lace and cotton are being shown on forms in other rooms of the house. The exhibit cases feature hats, parasols, and other accessories along with some infants' and children's garments. Up in the bedroom is a hand embroiand a train.

William F. Brines, newlyappointed director of the hospital, greeted the students and the many parents and friends who filled the hall.

The School Glee Club offered choral selections throughout the program. Mrs. Riley Hampton, director of volunteer services, spoke to the girls, congratulating them on their chosen profession and telling them of the invaluable service they would be to the medical profession and to the community. Miss Myrtice Fuller, director of Nursing, presented the class to the audience. Then, with the singing of the school hymn, the capping ceremony began. In groups of 10 the students received their individual caps from their "big sisters", senior girls who help guide the students through training. Filing across the stage, each girl lit a small candle, symbol of the lamp of knowledge, from a larger candle held by Miss Fuller. With the playing of the recessional, the exercises drew to a

It takes father-and-son craftsmanship to make Studebaker the best built car in America!

This is a challenge we are glad to sign — a challenge from South Bend to Detroit. It is a challenge to all cars for a comparison of quality and durability with Stude-baker—the best built car in America unquestionably.

Care that counts!

Upstanding citizens-many of them unique father-andson teams-proudly man the great modern Studebaker production lines.

They are home-town people mostly-nearly all of them are Indiana born and bred-and they're the most painstaking craftsmen anywhere in automobile manufacturing.

Thanks to the constant care they take, Studebaker means, not only a great car, but a quality way of building.

Come in and examine the superb construction of the new 1954 Studebaker. See how solid and sound it is throughout. It's more than the best built car in America. Its far-advanced style is like money in the bank for you as insurance of high resalevalue.

STUDEBAKER THE GREAT INDEPENDENT ... PIONEER AND PACEMAKER

puts long life into every Studebaker For over 102 years, father-and-son teams and other able craftsmen have been proudly protecting Studebaker quality.

ACCIDENT WORK

Join your RED CROSS

Year in and year out floods, fires, tornados kill and destroy. Disaster strikes like lightning . . . and just as unpredictably. People are injured. Homes shattered. Businesses wiped out. Help is needed urgently. And your Red Cross answers the call . . . on an average of six times a week.

Actually, you answer, for you are the Red Cross ... you and the rest of the folks who join to keep it going.

> You are there, not only in disasters, but when blood or first aid saves a life; when a serviceman or his family needs emergency help. And every dollar you give counts. Remember that, when a neighbor calls to ask you to join. Give generously.

> > Answer their call. Serve them by joining the world's greatest fellowship of goodwill and compassion . . . The Red Cross!

Staging of Original Revue Features Teachers' Meeting

A hilarious satirical revue, | Gaul, Marion Taft, Margaret written and staged by Newton public school teachers, fea-tured the annual business meeting and dinner of the Newton Teachers Federation Monday afternoon and evening at Newton High School.

The day's events began in the auditorium at 4 p.m. with the yearly business meeting conducted by Donald K. Davidson, president. Committee reports were read and the budget for 1953-54 was approved. In his report, Mr. Davidson stressed the need for strong professional educational organizations dedicated to the support of our free public schools. Guests at the dinner which followed included Mayor and Mrs. Howard Whitmore, Jr., School Committee Chairman and Mrs. James B. Palmer, Supt. of Schools and Mrs. Harold B. Gores, and Assistant Supt. and Mrs. Charles O. Richter. Mayor Whitmore and Dr. Palmer brought the greet- |'Alden Read. ings of the city and of the School Committee to the Federation.

The evening's activities concluded with a performance of "Ham and Eggs," which was billed as "A Musical Revue in Seven Scenes from the Greatest Profession on Earth." The revue was written by Ruth M.

Approximately 90 teachers were either in the cast, the chorus or connected with the show in some back-stage capacity. Miss Alice Finnegan was in charge of production, Miss Fay Ringer directed, James Remley was musical di-rector and Miss Barbara Allen did the choreography.

The coaches and advisors were Barbara Allen, Lawrence Anderson, Henrietta Brebbia, Ruth Campbell, Charles Chase, Gertrude Creedon, Elizabeth Meyers, Sadie Perkins, John herman, Helen Sweeney, ther Walters, Joseph Ward, Robert Densmore, Cecilia Dunlop, Lorraine Holmes, Eliza beth Howe, Helen Lee, Jeanne Love and Nancy MacGilvrey. Scene One, titled "Learning

Outside the School," took place near an elementary school on an April morning. Featured players were Lorna Doone Hildreth Palmer, Henrietta Brebbia, Hazel Ripley, Louise Blanchard, Viola DeSabato, Margery Keenan, and Marion Cogswell:

The second scene, "It Ought Not to Happen to Any Dog (but it sometimes does)," was set at Kirkpatrick Junior High School, Newton Hillside. The cast included Ian Malcolm, Harriet Klebenoff, Jacqueline Newman, Supt. Gores, Helen Laganas, Toula Laganas, Mary

Connors, Joseph Randall and

Sholkin Praises Fire Department After N.H. Blaze

Gratitude for the work of the Newton Fire Department in battling an early-morning blaze February 23 in a Newton Highlands block which housed plastic products was expressed last week in a letter to Fire Chief

John E. Corcoran.

Murray E. Sholkin, head of Beacon Products Corporation,

"I should like to express in behalf of my associates and my-self our great gratitude for the splendid way your department handled the fire at the Stevens building. If it weren't for the fact that I was there from 4:30 in the morning on and personally watched you and your men working there I might have gone through the rest of my life without a direct appreciation of the splendid work your department is doing to protect the property of our citizens.

"I'm not only grateful for the manner in which you handled the entire project but honestly feel indebted to you personally for the extent to which you yourself participated in this

"This is the first time directly or indirectly that our firms in over 45 years have ever had a fire and I'm hoping that at least another century will go by be-fore we have a repeat performance."

SCORING ATTEMPT FOILED-All-star Newton wing Freddie Dow is jammed between two Walpole defenders in front of the Walpole net in the semi-finals of the state schoolboy hockey tournament. Walpole scored twice on tainted shots to nose out Newton, 2-1. Belmont prevailed over the Orange and Black by the same score Saturday in the consolation game as Needham took the state title. (Photo by Gordon R. Wilk)

Newton High's fighting Tigers came to the end of this year's hockey trail last week as Walpole and Belmont each squeezed by the Orange and Black by identical 2-1 scores. The defeats were in the semi-final and consolation rounds the state hockey tournament and left Jack Hall's skaters ranking fourth in the state.... The Walpole defeat was especially heart-breaking, for both of the defending state champion's scores were on shots which bounced the wrong way for Newton. Newton put up a surprisingly good fight, even pulling its goalie with little over a minute left, but couldn't dent the rock-ribbed Walpole defense.... The Orange and Black, thought in the early phases of the season just to be "so-so" team, electrified the enthusiastic Arena crowd by jumping off to the lead over Walpole as late-comers were still filing into their seats.... But Walpole stormed back to tally twice before the period ended. Neither team scored again as defense predominated for the remainder of the game.

The first Walpole tally came after Newton recovered the puck in its own zone but failed to carry it out. A Walpole wing skated in to the side of the cage, and lifted a soft shot which goalie Tom McLellan caught on his shoulder.... However, the disc skidded off into the twine, and the score was tied. Seconds later, a long shot drifted in on McLellan from the blue line. The Newton goalie began to sweep the puck into the corner, a save he had made a hundred times before. The sliding puck unexpectedly skidded off the stick and popped into the corner of the net before McLellan had a chance to move. . . . The Walpole rooters hesitated in disbelief before cheering the score which won their team the right to face Needham in the finals. Newton tried desperately to crack the Walpole defense, but faulty passing and the poke-checking ability of the Bay State League champions kept the Orange and Black at bay . . Wth a little over a minute left, a Walpole player was banished from the ice. Seeking to capatalize on the man advantage, Coach Jack Hall pulled McLellan from the nets. However, Newton was unable to carry the puck into the Walpole end. As the buzzer ended the contest, Captain Jimmy Wiper smashed his stick against the ice in frustration, smashing the Saturday night the same scenario was followed, this time with Belmont the villain. After Art DeStefano put Newton into the lead with three seconds remaining in the first period, Belmont's Gerry Howell whipped home a pair of goals during a two-minute span in the second stanza. Belmont, G.B.I. champ and victor over Newton 5-4 in the second game of the season, held on to grab third place in the tourney.

Sports fans who followed the ups and downs of the NHS skaters this season will long remember this team. 2:30 to 4:30. Like the football squad which brought home the Class A Because of co-championship, the puck chasers were not the most talented team around, but made up for this drive, spirit, hard play and sound coaching.... When Newton began its season by tying a feeble Stoneham squad and then losing to Belmont by one tally, most observers felt the Orange and Black had a good second-division team. Each week, however, showed a steady improvement until the Tigers were able to challenge Belmont for the GBI title in the final game. . . . The Tigers played a crowd-pleasing, rugged type of hockey not often found among the schoolboys. Little wonder, for the backbone of this team came straight from the gridiron....Jack Hall can be proud of the coaching job he did this year, taking a relatively inexperienced sextet and turning it into a powerhouse. The Orange and Black record, one of the best in years, ended up at nine wins, two ties and three defeats against top-notch conseiling.

N-W Hospital Aid Directors Told of Boston Eye Bank

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Association, Inc., which was held Tuesday morning at Allen-Riddle Hall, nurse's residence at the hospital, the directors heard a talk about the Boston Eye Bank and saw a film on the same subject.

Presenting this interesting subject was Miss Marilyn Myers, executive secretary of the Eye Bank of the Eye and Ear Infirmary, which is asso-ciated with the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Mrs. Worthing L. West, first vice-president of the Aid, pre-sided at the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Paul T. Babson, Aid president. William Brines, new director of the Newton - Wellesley was sented to the directors and spoke a few words of greet-

During the business meeting, Miss Ethel Woodbury, daughter of Mrs. Horace E. Woodbury, who was one of the original members of the Hospital Aid, was elected an honorary director of the Aid. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Ward I. Cornell and Mrs. Grosvenor D. Marcy.

Herter and Hynes in Real Display of Statesmanship . . . Their Action on Central Artery Devoid of Politics . . .

Governor Herter and Mayor Hynes last week gave quite a demonstration of statesmanship, when they completely set aside partisan politics and in a joint statement announced their agreement on the selection of a route for the Boston Central Artery.

The Republican Governor and Democratic Mayor, who have been repeatedly but probably erroneously mentioned as possible opponents in next fall's election, subsequently issued statements, each praising the fairness of the other.

It was something new and novel in Massachusetts politics to see two men of opposite political parties seated side by side at a press conference, answering questions together, demonstrating an unspoken mutual respect, neither trying to take advantage of the other.

It could happen only with men of the stature and caliber of Governor Herter and Mayor Hynes, who, despite the bitterness which the 12-months controversy over the artery route reached at times, endeavored to view the matter from the standpoint of the common good without regard for partisan political considerations. The rapid growth of the Newton Highlands industrial area in addition to the home building boom has provided extra sources of taxation.

Earle D. Wood, chairman of the Finance Committee, declared he hoped to make further savings in the budget when it was presented to the aldermen last month.

The largest item in the budget, as in most communities, is $4,372,978 for the School Department. Far behind in sec ond place is the Street Department with $2,332,007.44. The Treasury Department, which includes interest on loans, is seek ing $1.603,915.98. The only other request topping the mil lion mark is the Fire and Wire Department with $1,046,466.17.

When just ONE of you isn't enough!

How many telephone calls did you make yesterday? How many minutes . . . how many steps . . . how many miles of driving did those telephone calls save you? Enough, undoubtedly, so that without the telephone just one of you simply couldn't have accomplished it all.

Your telephone has become an essential part of today's way of life. Families depend on it to link their homes with neighborhood stores and friends. Businessmen rely on it to keep them in close contact with their sales forces and local suppliers. Doctors, police, firemen depend on it to speed help in emergencies.

How Your Telephone Is Growing With Massachusetts

As telephone service expands and gives you more value than ever before, the amount of telephone equipment and the number of telephone people working here in Massachuetts grows, too. The service costs more, and it costs more to provide. During 1954, Massachusetts will see 20 more cities and towns converted to fast, convenient diat service, 53 more local calling areas extended to eliminate toll charges between their exchanges, more new switchboards, more wires, cables and poles all over the state -$52,600,000 worth of improvements and expansion to provide the telephone service Massachusetts

Their action eliminated the Central Artery as a possible issue in next au-tumn's gubernatorial campaign, as it should have been eliminated, for in this instance the Republican Herter and Demodratic Hynes stood together, sharing equally the praise and the criticism for their mutual agreement. Neither could claim all the credit for what appears to be a sound decision. Neither would take the full brunt of censure from whose who think a different route should have been

As Mayor Hynes himself pointed out, Governor Herter need not have shown the consideration he gave to Boston officials in working along with them for a full vear, weighing their suggestions. ordering that changes and revisions be made wherever they would improve the State

The Governor could have ridden roughshod over the objections which Mayor Hynes and Boston Public Works Comissioner Hyland offered to the State plan last March and again last November. Under the law, the State is paying the entire expense of building the artery and had the complete authority to decide where it should go.

Herter could have brushed aside the arguments of Hynes and Hyland and decreed that the artery was to go where the State pleased to construct it. Instead, he conference after conference with them, finally producing a plan that everyone could agree upon.

Mayor Hynes, on the other hand, could have refused to be satisfied by any compromise and instead sat back and criticized any decision the State made. That is the tactic many politicians would have employed in order to make campaign capital of the matter. Hynes insisted from the outside that politics played no part whatever in shaping his attitude, that he was not trying to embarass State officials or place them in an awkward position and that he was interested solely in getting the best route he could for his city.

The fact that he issued a joint statement with the Governor, after conferences extending over a full year had ironed wrinkles and imperfections out of the State plan and had lessened the destruction it would cause in Chinatown and the impact it would make upon Boston's leather and garment industries, was evidence of Hynes' sincerity and that he had been saying exactly what he meant.

Within the next week or 10 days, incidentally, an announcement may be expected from Hynes that he intends to concentrate on his own job of running Boston's municipal government and that he will not be a candidate for State office

In all probability, next October will find Hynes supporting the Democratic State ticket and on the opposite side of the political fence from Herter, but even that is not likely to lessen the respect existing between the two men.

It now appears that the Eisenhower administration is making a very determined effort to dispel any notion in the public mind that Senator Joseph R. McCarthy is bigger than the President or the Republican party.

It is evident that an attempt is being made to clip McCarthy's wings in rather forceful fashion. It is unlikely that he will stand still and let them be clipped without putting up quite a battle, and the final outcome and effect of the operation remain to be determined.

The operation to cut down McCarthy was being carried out on several sides and from several quarters.

Vice President Nixon's widely publicized reply contained thinly veiled criticism of McCarthy's methods and obviously was intended to put McCarthy in his place, politically speaking.

While it is always difficult to prove such things, it is reasonable to assume that the Army would not have made public its report charging that Roy Cohn, chief counsel for McCarthy's committee, with the Senator's assist-ance sought preferential treatment for a former associate, unless White House consent had been obtained to make the

Any charge of so spectaclar and severe nature must have been cleared either with someone very close to President Eisenhower or with the President himself before it was issued to the newspapers, and that action in itself offered rather convincing proof that the Eisenhower administration had declared open war on McCarthy.

Yes, you're in for a wonderful change with an electric water heater — and you're in for a wonderful water heater with the new General Electric "Armorcrete"!

Here's something to remember. An electric water heats the water, not the house. That's even more important in warm weather! And warm weather is just around the corner! What's more, an electric water heater operates as silently as light itself—no swoosh—no whir.

Any questions about water heating? Call Hancock 6-3300, Extension 549, your nearest Edison Shop or GE appliance dealer. Why not today?

Join your RED CROSS

Year in and year out floods, fires, tornados kill and destroy. Disaster strikes like lightning . . . and just as unpredictably. People are injured. Homes shattered. Businesses wiped out. Help is needed urgently. And your Red Cross answers the call . . . on an average of six times a week.

Actually, you answer, for you are the Red Cross ... you and the rest of the · folks who join to keep it going.

> You are there, not only in disasters, but when blood or first aid saves a life; when a serviceman or his family needs emergency help. And every dollar you give counts. Remember that, when a neighbor calls to ask you to join. Give generously.

Answer their call. Serve them by joining the world's greatest fellowship of goodwill and compassion . . . The Red Cross!

Temple Emanuel To Hear Hebrew Univ. Lecturer

Dr. Frederick R. Lachman, research fellow at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and representative of the Minister of Education and Culture of Israel, will speak from the pulpit of Temple Emanuel of Newton at the late Friday evening Service (tomorrow) at 8:15 p.m. His subject will be, "The brew University and the Fu-ture of the Jew."

Dr. Lachman, whose academic and literary career has been orilliant, has been a resident in Palestine since 1936. In 1938, he was appointed Research Fellow in History at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. He has taken an active role in the organizational work of the American Friends of the Hebrew University.

Recognized as an outstanding speaker, and thoroughly acquainted with the cultural life in Israel, Dr. Lachman brings first-hand information to the American Jew.

To Act as Judge For Debates Tues. By Police Chiefs

Newton Police Chief Philip Purcell is one of seven police department heads who will act as a panel of judges for three debates sponsored by the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association Tuesday morning.

The debates, in the form of "Little Town Meeting," will come during the Massachusetts Safety Council's 33rd Annual Conference in the Bay State Room of the Hotel Statler at 11 a.m. The discussions are open to the public.

Subjects to be debated by police chiefs deal with the demerit system for auto insurance, speed governors for all motor vehicles and numbering of auto law violation notices.

Famed Soprano At Wellesley

Victoria De LosAngeles, famed soprano, will give a concert on Tuesday, March 30 at Alumnae Hall, Wellesley College. A change of dates has been made for the appearance of the Metropolitan singer. The concert will be on March 30 at 8 p.m., instead of April 1 as previously announced. All ticket holders have been informed

The reason for the change of date is the growing demand for Unit at the Wellesley Convales-De LosAngeles in the great roles of the Metropolitan Opera Company, increasing her performances with that organization so much that schedule has been fuller than anticipated when the contract for her Wellesley appearance was signed.

NEW KIND OF LIFE INSURANCE FOR CHILDREN

Have you a child or a grandchild between the ages of 1 and 15? If so, our new JUNIOR ESTATE BUILDER policy — which we've nicknamed the "Jumping Juvenile" — will assure him $5000 of life insurance at age 21 for every $1000 you buy him now!... with no increase in cost and with no further proof of

Jumps 5 times in value at age 21 with no added cost

You see, this savings-type life insurance automatically jumps to 5 times its original value when the youngster reaches 21, yet the premium does not change throughout the life of the policy. Here's the ideal way to guarantee your child a substantial amount of life insurance, at low juvenile rates, as he takes on grown-up responsibilities - with important cash values available for earlier education or later emergencies.

The sooner you buy the lower the rate. For details in terms of age you specify, please fill out and return the coupon.

Easter Bunny Arrives First Day of Spring

Thousands of children and parents eagerly await the arrival of the Easter Bunny who picked a very appropriate date to welcome the Easter seasonthe first day of Spring. The Bunny, who will be brought to Waltham via helicopter, will land at the Reece plant on Prospect street and will be escorted over the parade route by many bands, drill teams, floats and special features picked to delight the many thousands who line the popular parade route. Other features include the 4-H elub of Bolton who will bring 20 of their horseback riding members to the parade. To introduce a Gay Nineties spirit there will be a showing of old fashioned bicycles, in cluding a three-seated Orient manufactured in Waltham over fifty years ago, plus many old fashioned automobiles. Many big top features will add a carnival flavor to the parade such as the tall stilt man, the famous midget man, the unicycle clown, and a host of clowns headed by the internationally famous clown. Herb Taylor. Also included in this group will be Mardi Gras heads of famous characters. The Waltham Lions club has entered a float along with special floats prepared by the Grover Cronin display department. The Easter Bunny coloring contest will again take place this year forchildren up to 10 years of age. City, State, and store officials will be on hand to welcome the Bunny at the grandstand erected on Moody street, in front of the main entrance of the store.

Extra Power, New Styles in Trucks By Studebaker

New styling, new cab and chassis features, and a new V-8 power plant for the heavierduty vehicles were announced by The Studebaker Corporation today as details concerning the company's new trucks were dis-

The details made public today follow an announcement earlier this month revealing price reductions of as much as for the new models. The new truck series, ranging from the popular half-ton pick-up to heavy-duty 2-ton unit, includes five basic models. Gross ehicle ratings range from 4,600 pounds to 16,000 pounds. The 1954 trucks are designated as the 3R series and give Stude-baker a highly diversified seection of commercial vehicles with which to meet market competition.

The addition of a new V-8 engine gives Studebaker three different power plants for its commercial vehicles: the 6-cylinder "Econ-O-Miser" and "Power Plus" engines for the lighter models, and either the new V-8 power plant or the "Power Plus" engine for the heavier models. Along with increased horsepower is a fourpeed syncromesh transmission as standard on all 2-ton models and optional at extra cost on all the others.

Exterior changes include mart new grille, headlamp and bumper assembly, and new one-piece windshields which provide unequalled forward visibility. Nine different body colors are available and cab interiors are color-matched to har-monize with exterior hues.

THERE'S ALWAYS PLENTY of FREE PARKING For Newton Super Customers! Republicans Need Outstanding Woman for State Ticket . . Must Also Balance Slate for Next Autumn's Election . . .

Republican leaders would like to back some outstanding woman for a place on their party's State ticket in next fall's election, and it is a matter to which they are giving a great deal of thought.

There is a feeling on the part of many women that their sex hasn't received much recognition from the party in Massachusetts during the past few years, and the G.O.P. masterminds quite understandably would like to take advantage of that situation.

Two years ago, the attractive and personable Mrs. Beatrice Hancock Mullaney of Fall River was the Republican candidate for Secretary of State. While she didn't quite succeed in winning election, she did add something to the Republican ticket and in her own way contributed to the triumph achieved by Governor Herter.

Whether Mrs. Mullaney would be interested in making another run for office is uncertain. If she doesn't, the Republican high command undoubtedly will try to find

"Matters have changed in the last nine months. In my opinion, last year's proposal ($7700 for plans which was rejected by the aldermen) was out-of-pocket expense to fool around with an architect. When I say that we'll go ahead, I'll mean it. That's an honest answer.'

School Committeeman Haskell, also referring to the elec-tion threat, said he "wouldn't request a new school from the aldermen because I think it would be a grandstand play at this time. The budget won't allow another new school."

The aldermen actually appropriated only $12,611,323 for the 1954 budget. However, $298,365 had already been appropriated the first three months of the year for city expenses in advance of the budget.

The G.O.P. brass also are studying the problem of balancing their ticket from both a geographical and racial standpoint. The four men certain of places on the Republican slate—Governor Herter, Senator Saltonstall, Lieutenant Governor Whittier and Attorney General Fingold—all are from Greater Boston. To give the ticket any real degree of ographical balance, the candidates for State Treasurer, State Auditor and Secretary of State must be drawn, if possible, from other sections of Massachusetts. That objective, of course, isn't always easily achieved because candidates from the Metropolitan Boston area usually go into a convention with the greatest delegate support, and party chieftains try to avoid dictating nominations, though they may attempt to "guide" and "advise" their

Whatever else they may or may not achieve in their efforts to offer the best possible State ticket to the voters next November, they will try to include a woman on their slate.

Republican politicos can argue with considerable justification that their party has given more recognition to the ladies than have the Democrats in Massachusetts, at least. These are some of the points they make:

1. The G.O.P. nominated and supported a woman for State-wide office in

2. The Republican party has an out-standing woman, Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, in its Congressional delegation on Capitol Hill.

3. A Massachusetts woman, Mrs. Katherine Howard, holds a high federal post in Washington.

4. The Republican members of Congress from Massachusetts have substantially more women on their staffs than do their Republican brethren.

With the women voters now outnumbering the men by a fairly wide margin in Massachusetts, the G.O.P. may be able to make a political capital of these facts in their appeals to the ladies.

efforte ministration leaders, Congress is very likely to cut taxes more sharply than President Eisenhower wishes. That will be true of the excise taxes and probably the individual income taxes as well.

The explanation, of course, is that next fall's election already is casting its long shadow over Capitol Hill, and political self-preservation is the first unwritten law of Congress, even though Mr. Eisen-hower may not have been in politics long enough to realize it.

A good many Republican Congressmen privately realize and point out that following Ike's political thinking is by no means any sure road to success at the polls next

Forced to choose between displeasing the President and party leaders on the one hand and the folks back home on the other, most Congressmen are going to safeguard their own prospects of winning reelection.

This is especially true, of course, of Congressmen from the so-called marginal districts where the spread between the Republican and Democratic candidates usually is not more than 5 percent of the vote cast, a margin that can be wiped out by a changing political tide.

Those Congressmen from overwhelming Republican districts, where the election of a Democrat is just about a political impossibility, can afford to stand pat with the President, but there are not enough Congressmen in that category to assure the passage of a major portion of the Eisenhower program.

Most Congressmen from tight districts recognize that President Eisenhower is personally more popular than are many of his policies. They are somewhat apprehensive that they may feel the whip lash of public resentment if they stand up and vote against tax cuts that would be popular back home and in so doing place campaign ammunition in the hands of their opponents.

Congress has not accomplished a great deal in its session to date, largely because much of the time has been devoted to conducting hearings and clearing the decks for action on important bills. And for the remainder of their session many Congressmen will be giving careful considera-tion to the public reaction their votes will have in the districts where they will be seeking reelection a few months hence.

Some Lively Congressional Fights Seen . .

Even though the big overshadowing political battle next autumn will be waged for the control of Congress, a number of individual contests around the country will command widespread attention because of the personalities involved.

Former Vice President Alben W. Barkley is expected to attempt a comeback in Kentucky at the age of 76. Barkley hasn't yet definitely announced his intention of running, but political observers consider there is little doubt that he will toss his hat into the ring as a candidate against formidable Republican Senator

John S. Cooper. New York Staters anticipate a spectacular struggle between Governor Thomas E. Dewey and Congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., whose father defeated Dewey for the Presidency in 1944. The younger Roosevelt is still far from his father's equal the is still far from his father's equal as a master-politician, but he has the magic political name, and followers of the late Senator Robert A. Taft have never forgiven Dewey for what he did to their man and are waiting to knife him if the opportunity presents itself. James Roosevelt, whose marital trials and tribulations made spicy headlines, will be running for Congress out in the "nutcake" State known as California, and there is some question whether he can survive politically even in a district that usually goes Democratic.

Congressman J. Parnell Thomas of New Jersay, who was sent to prison for taking salary kickbacks from his office staff and was subsequently pardoned by President Truman, will endeavor to win back his old seat on Capitol Hill and no doubt will be the centre of a lively con-

Congressman Harold H. Veldes of Illinois, chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee will face substantial opposition in his district, according to reports, because of his invesigations of labor union members and clergymen.

Two oil millionaires, Senator Robert S. Kerr and ex-Governor Roy Turner, both Democrats, will wage a battle in Oklahoma for the Senate seat Kerr now holds, and campaign expenditures are expected to flow freely.

Up in Maine, Senator Margaret Chase Smith, who more than once has teed off on her Republican colleague, Senator Joe McCarthy, will be challenged in the June 21 primary. 21 primary by a friend of McCarthy's, Although no Presidential election is on the calendar, it looms as anything but a dull political year nationally.

he continued, plays an impor-tant part, along with the church and public education, in the third element by helping the in-dividual adjust to his "rank" in community affairs.

Dr. Pemberton said one of the most compelling problems today is that of the stranger in a group. But where there was no kinship, he was a lonely stranger.

"In both the Old and New Testaments, the people were en-joined not to neglect the stranger. We must be concerned with those to whom we have no direct relationship and with whom we have no emotional tie," he

we have no emotional tie," he told the Red Feather Agency.

Mrs. Catherine Holden, executive director, explained the aims of the Family Service Bureau in her annual report. She said the agency hopes "to render service to the community appropriate activities which are designed. ity activities which are designed to meet needs, and to render service to the individual and the family group through case work."

Mrs. Holden concluded her re port by stressing that the objective in case work is to help reduce family tensions and to

TELE-VIEWING By LEE LOUMOS

Did you ever pay attention to the theme music of your TV programs? Everybody knows the "Dragnet Theme." but some of the others are less well known. Jack Gleason uses "Melancholy Serenade"... and few people know that Jack! composed it himself. "On the Trail" is the name of the "I Love Lucy" theme ... and Arthur Godfrey uses "Old Times," a hit song from many rears ago. Many themes were written especially for their shows ... like the "Be Happy, Go Lucky" song written by Farmond Scott for the "Hit Parade" ... the "Rocco Karns series..." "Stars Over Broadway," authored for the "Show of Shows."

"Stars Over Broadway," authored for the "Show of Shows."

Oroucho Marx took his theme from one of his eld movies. The number is "Heoray for Capitain Spaulding," and it's taken from a famous Marx brothers' film, "Animal Grackers."
And, speaking of old movies, a Hollywood producer is setting a new tel-evision series ready built around silent movie stars. He has a panel consisting of Norman Kerry, Viola Dana, Oilda Gray and Bryant Washburn in preliminary rehearsals. This should be nostalgic affair for the old timers who remember their silent film favorites.

After the somewhat delayed arrival of the Hershey bus Sunday night, the students matched up with their Newton counterparts and went to their individual homes.

The program actually opened the following morning at Newton High School when the ex-change students toured the buildings and attended classes. After school, the visitors were shown points of interest in and about Newton by bus and pri vate car.

At noon, one boy and one girl from the group attended the Newton Rotary Club's weekly luncheon, accompanied by the of Hershey High, George D. Lange. Both the Newton and Hershey groups met the Board of Aldermen at its budget meeting Monday night and chatted with Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr. in his office.

The Hershey students were present for the first two classes uesday, but then left for a tour of the famous Waltham Watch Company. Both exchange groups took part in an earlyafternoon inspection of the Gamewell Company in Newton Upper Falls, followed by trips through the National Research Company and Beacon Plastics in the "Miracle Mile."

The day's activities concluded with a super and party in the Newtonville Methodist Church under the sponsorship of parents of a second Newton exchange group which will visit Ohio next month.

Year in and year out floods, fires, tornados kill and destroy. Disaster strikes like lightning . . . and just as unpredictably. People are injured. Homes shattered. Businesses wiped out. Help is needed urgently. And your Red Cross answers the call . . . on an average of six times a week.

Actually, you answer, for you are the Red Cross...you and the rest of the folks who join to keep it going.

You are there, not only in disasters, but when blood or first aid saves a life; when a serviceman or his family needs emergency help. And every dollar you give counts. Remember that, when a neighbor calls to ask you to join. Give generously.

Answer their call. Serve them by joining the world's greatest fellowship of goodwill and compassion . . . The Red Cross!

sports world, is finally beginning to stir his dormant muscles and wipe away six months of cobwebs. The playoffs Hunnewell Club and tournaments in both amateur and the play-for-pay circles are beginning to fade from the local scene, and the dreaded "in-between-seasos-what'll-I-do-with-myself-tonight" time is approaching rapidly for the sports fanatic.

ames, complete with creaking muscles and snapping bones, gives hope for a brighter day dawning not so far of the spatial the upstairs reception rooms of the Hunnewell Club when the final Ladies' Afternoon Bridge of the season takes place next away. Before you know it, Newton will be knee-deep in high school baseball, Little League baseball, junior high baseball, twi-league baseball, elementary school baseball, the numerous members and Junior Legion baseball and the married men-bachelors variety . . . The 1954 debut of Algernon Q. Baseball is scheduled for Monday, April 5, when Newton High coach Howie Ferguson will unveil his protegies against Medopen to all, quite a number of food in an independent treatment. ford in an independent tussle.

Newton traditionally plays the Mustangs at an early date. Lately this game has taken on the aspect of the traditional opening of the schoolboy baseball campaign, like the hallowed tradition of a double-header in Fenway Park on Patriot's Day . . . A 16game schedule has been arranged for Newton's defending champion of the Suburban League. Four of these contests are with teams outside the league.

The Orange and Black diamond prospects are encouraging. This could be said every year, as long as Ferguson is at the helm. Probably the best schoolboy coach in the state, Howie makes a specialty of turning up cham- Mrs. A. Gordon Weinz. pionship squads year after year . . . Billy Hamill, outstanding centerfielder, and Art DeStefano, combination pitcher-outfielder, are back to bolster the Orange and Black chances. And you can count on Howie to pull seven other top-notch players out of his magic satchel by the time April 12—first league game time—rolls around . . . After the Medford game, the Orange and Black will face Quincy on April 8 in another independent encounter. Other independent games have been scheduled for Apri Other independent games have been scheduled for Apri 26 (Brockton) and May 21 (Thayer Academy), both at the Newton High garden . . . The Suburban League schedule follows: April 12, Cambridge; April 14, at Watertown; April 20, at Arlington; April 23, Rindge; April 30, at Waltham; May 4, Brookline; May 7, at Cambridge; May 12, Watertown; May 14, Arlington; May 18, at Rindge; May 24, Waltham, and May 27, Brookline.

The May 24 game with Waltham will be a twilight affair, getting under way at 5:15 p.m. so that sports fans ordinarily at work during the N.H.S. games will have a chance to see the Tigers pair off against a traditional enemy . . . This appears like another piece of "crystal-ball" scheduling, since this game will probably have a definite bearing on the Suburban League flag chase.

Last week the Newton Men's Athletic Associatio established an award in memory of the late Bill Connors, physical education instructor and coach at Newton High whose untimely and sudden death last year came as a profound shock to all who were taught by him or knew him . . . The plaque, to be known as the "William E. Conners Memorial Award," will be given to the senior boy "who exemplifies outstanding spirit by placing the team above self." The recipient will be chosen by the head coaches, and the plaque will be given at either the spring athletic banquet or at graduation ceremonies . . . Spring football continues at Our Lady's, and coach Jim Sullivan has come up with a couple of boys who seem sure to erase the unpleasant one-win record of last year. Sullivan is still plugging away at fundamentals, knowing well that a

Watch Children Playing in The House

Cold, rainy or snowy winter veather means that young children will be playing in the house and that special care to avoid accidents will be needed, warned the Metropolitan Accident Prevention Program today. Accidents kill and cripple more children than all the infectious diseases of childhood together including influenza, pneumonia, poliomyelitis, tuberculosis, rheumatic fever, measles, diphtheria and whooping cough, yet this need not be the case. If parents or those supervising young children understood the accident potentialities around the house, many accidents could easily be avoided. It is the parent's responsibility to anticipate dangers and to guard the child against them. Many opportunities exist to teach even very young children and even simple precautions can avoid tragic acci-

Teach your child to keep one hand free and to hold on to the handrail when going up and tractor-trailer length. down stairs; to store toys in a box when they are not in use; not to run in the house; not to climb or stand on chairs; never to touch matches and never to touch the stove or anything on it. There are many more teaching opportunities in daily living but teaching the child is only one part of safety. Parents must also provide protection for their preschool children because they are too young to comprehend some dangers. Check your home. See that bleaches, cleaning com-pounds and medicines are ocked out of your child's reach; that your child's crib is away from the radiators and space heaters; that you do not have scatter rugs that skid; that you do not leave a hot iron where your children can get at out of their reach; that knives and sharp objects are stored safely. Do your part to protect at su your child — since nothing that ease. visible and within reach is safe from exploring fingers.

Although it is difficult for a busy mother to always be with child, it is important not to leave children alone in a room for more than a very few minutes. Accounts of tragic, fatal accidents repeatedly report that the child was alone while a short errand was being done or while the mother was busy in another room. In even a brief period, inquisitive youngsters can become involved in serious situations so the safest rule is never to leave children alone.

Operators of tractor-trailer combinations will benefit-greatly from the specially engineered compact design of the new C-1 Series of Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks, it was pointed out by William S. Woolsey, Sales Manager-Trucks, Dodge Division, Chrysler Corporation. Although the new Dodge trucks have roomier cabs than ever before, most of the new conventional tractors have been shortened to 102 inches from front bumper to back of cab to permit use of standard 35-foot semi-trailers to keep within a 45-foot over-all length and so meet the legal length requirements in all 48 states.

No other leading-make truck can do this with a standard conventional cab, Mr. Woolsey

Likewise, the new Dodge cabover-engine tractors measure only 81 inches from bumper to back of cab. Their compactness makes it possible to use a longer trailer and still meet legal restrictions on over-all

This compact design of the new Dodge C-1 tractors, to-gether with wider front tread, gives better weight distribution and thus even more maneuverability than before. The shorter over-all length also increases ease of parking and garaging.

The short, low sloping hood of both conventional and C.O.E. models enables drivers to see the roadway up close to the front of the truck thus increasing driving safety and ease of handling.

Over-the-road operators also will benefit from the new V-8 engines with hemispherical combustion chambers and lateral overhead valves, claimed to be the most efficient power plant ever offered in a truck. They are being introduced in the C-1 Series with horsepower ratings of 133, 153 and 172 to it; that you do not permit your meet a wide range of hauling child near the washing machine needs. The new engines extract more workable power it; that you store matches in a from standard, fuel, maintain metal container which is placed their original power and efficiency for years without major service work, and move trucks at sustained high speeds with > Tractor-trailer operators will appreciate the unique new frame features on the new C-1 Series tractors. The inverted rear crossmember provides additional clearance for trailer kingpin, and the ramp ends facilitate coupling of trailers.

The new stronger and more rigid frames curve in at the front wheels, creating a recess for the steering gear and increasing the clearance between the front wheels and frame. The wheels can turn more sharply —as much as 39° on most models-further increasing maneuverability in which Dodge has

Power steering is offered for the first time by Dodge on the new C-1 Series 4-ton model, which retains the efficient sixcylinder 171-horsepower engine. Many improvements and refinements have been made in this powerful engine.

Among important designs 2-3 cup grated American and improvements in the new trucks which increase driver comfort, and thus lead to reduced hauling costs, are a new one-piece curved windshield, four inches more shoulder-room to accommodate three comfortably in the adjustable seat. new instrument dials placed directly in front of the driver for easier reading, improved cab sealing, and lower and wider running boards.
